

Elixir Extracts Application Form

Where: Lilian Baylis Studio, Sadler's Wells Theatre, London

When: 15-16 June 2019

Who: Dance groups with members over the age of 60 or groups who work with choreographers over the age of 60, and we are particularly interested in hearing from groups from the BAME community. (BAME definition - Black, Asian, and minority ethnic.)

What: We can accept applications for both works in progress and finished works. We can also accept applications for 'demonstration' style performances where your group performs an example of what you usually do when you dance together.

Length: The piece should be no longer than 8 minutes in length when finished, and ideally at least 5 minutes.

How: Applications must be submitted by Wednesday 19th December 2018 at midday

In order to be considered, applications should be accompanied by a video link of the company's/choreographer's work that is no more than 2 minutes in length. If the full video is longer than 2 minutes, please indicate which section of the video you would like us to watch.

If submitting a work in progress or work not as yet made, please submit past performance or rehearsal footage that will give a clear indication of the style in which the choreographer/group works.

Applications should be submitted by email to learning@sadlerswells.com or by post to Elixir Extracts Festival, Learning and Engagement, Sadler's Wells, Rosebery Avenue, London, EC1R 4TN, UK and must reach us by the deadline stated above.

Selected groups will be informed by Friday 18th January 2019.
